SOUTHEASTERN CHAPTER OF AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF LAW LIBRARIES

LUCILE ELLIOTT SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEE

ANNUAL REPORT 1973 - 1974

The Lucile Elliott Scholarship Committee for 1973-1974 consisted of Mary Frances Cox, Tennessee Valley Authority Law Library, David K. Brennan, University of Alabama, School of Law Library and Susan D. Csaky, University of Kentucky Law Library, as chairperson.

A total of $200.00 was allocated to the scholarship fund at the Seattle Annual Conference which doubled our last year's funding.

The Committee received a total of 8 applications all with good qualifications and justifiable needs which made the selection job more difficult than usual. Two applications were for support of law library studies at the University of North Carolina; two for general library science education; one for continuation of law studies; one for support of travel to the St. Paul Annual Convention; and two for attendance of the pre-convention cataloging institute. The Committee decided to split the scholarship money and made $100.00 awards to Ms. Robin K. Mills of the University of South Carolina and Mrs. Katherine L. May of the Cumberland School of Law Library, Birmingham, Alabama.

We requested and received an additional amount of $100.00 during our Atlanta Workshop. Our unanimous choice for this scholarship was Mrs. Clara Kimmons of the University of Miami Law Library. Unfortunately she had to decline because the reasons for application became void when she was not admitted to the pre-convention cataloging institute. We added this money to next year's scholarship fund.
